Chapter 1 by indy

The sky was grey, rain coming down heavily as if it was crying. A man wearing a black trench coat, a black hat that covered his eyes, walked down the sidewalk. Why was this man out in the rain? Why are you even questioning him? He's a character of my story i can make him be where i want thats why. So now that your curiosity has been fulfilled, lets get back to the story shall we? The man went up the steps of a faded red house and entered it, closing the door after him, the man bent down as two small children ran up to him yelling "daddy! daddy! your home!" the man took off his hat to reveal two tired blue eyes. He kissed their heads and carried them to the living room, where he took off his trench coat and put it on a coat rack. "did you two behave for aunt carol?" they nodded happily as a woman with brown hair entered the room " thanks for watching them carol i hope they did not give you any trouble?" the woman named carol smiled " oh heavens no they were like angels all day, they even helped around the house" he smiled and carol left, he tucked them into bed and read them a story until they fell asleep. He carefully left the room and got into his sleep wear, got into his bed and grabbed a picture of a smiling woman with green eyes, black hair, wearing a yellow dress. " they act more like you everyday ria, i wish you could have been here for them" 2 years ago ria had gotten into a bad accident and died in the hospital, Ben had been devastated, but he stayed strong for their two children, connie and tylor, who had been three at the time. Tylor took after his mother, green eyes, black hair, tan skin. While his sister took more after his father, brown hair, blue eyes, and pale skin. Ben talked to her about his day, " how was school today?" " it was fine" she said. " i love you" and with that he turned off the light.
